

Faith Crabbe has resided in Norristown for more than 34 years. She was born in Norristown, raised in Ambler and returned to Norristown to raise her children. Mother of seven children and many grandchildren who attended Norristown schools, she is well aware of the issues that confront the citizens of this district.

As facilities manager of the Greater Norristown Area Police Athletic League, she is in constant contact with the youth of Norristown Area, and knows what problems they face each day with their education. Known as Ms. Faye to everyone, she is aware that education starts in the early years and that we need to strengthen the skills of the children so that they will not be a child left behind.

Faith is a very visible community servant, always available to help anyone in need. She has received many accolades from organizations such as the Montgomery County Commissioners for organizing the Norristown Optimist Club, Mt. Zion Church, Elmwood Lodge#438, Martin Luther King award from the Borough of Norristown and the Montgomery County Black History Award.

She is also a member of the Women's Progressive League which stresses education through scholarship funding, and tutoring programs. She is a very visible member of the Tabernacle International Deliverance Church, serving on the Usher and Greeter Board.

Faith is an advocate for positive changes for our youth and wants to help improve the educational standards for our youth.
